Making your complaint

On receipt of your complaint the Monitoring Officer will be considered in accordance with the Council's Protocol: Arrangements for Investigating and Making Decisions in relation to allegation made under the Members' Code of Conduct.

Please return your completed complaint form to the Council's Monitoring Officer, by post or email, at the address shown at section 11 of this form.

4. Please explain in this section (or on separate sheets) what the Member(s) has done that you believe amounts to a breach of the Members' Code of Conduct.

If you are complaining about more than one Member you should clearly explain what each individual Member has done that you believe amounts to a breach of the Members' Code of Conduct.

It is important that you provide all the information you wish to have taken into account by the Monitoring Officer when he/she undertakes his/her Preliminary Assessment and Evaluation of your complaint. For example:

- You should be specific, wherever possible, about exactly what you are alleging the Member(s) said or did. For instance, instead of writing that the Member insulted you, you should state what was actually said.

- You should provide the dates of the alleged incidents wherever possible. If you cannot provide exact dates it is important to give a general timeframe.
- You should confirm whether there are any witnesses to the alleged conduct and provide their names and contact details if possible.
- You should provide any relevant background information or other relevant documentary evidence to support your allegation.
- If the conduct alleged took place over three months before submitting this complaint please explain why the complaint was not made sooner.

5. Only complete this next section if you are requesting that your identity is kept confidential

In the interests of fairness and in compliance with the rules of natural justice, we believe a Member(s) who is complained about has a right to know who has made the complaint and the substance of the allegation(s) made against him/her. We are, therefore, unlikely to withhold your personal details or the details of your complaint unless you have good reasons to believe that you have justifiable grounds, for example:

- to believe you may be victimised or harassed by the Member(s) against whom you are submitting a written complaint (or by a person associated with the same);
- the matter is the subject of an investigation by another public body e.g. the Police and that investigation may be prejudiced as a result of disclosure; or
- you believe that you may receive less favourable treatment from the Council because of the seniority of the Member(s) against whom you are making the complaint.

Please note that requests for confidentiality or requests for suppression of complaint details will not automatically be granted. The Monitoring Officer will consider the request alongside the substance of your complaint, and will then contact you with the decision. If your request for confidentiality is not granted, you will usually be afforded the opportunity of withdrawing your complaint.

However, it is important to understand that in certain exceptional circumstances where the matter complained about is serious, the Monitoring Officer can proceed with an investigation or other action and disclose your name even if you have expressly asked that it remains confidential.

Please provide us with details of why you believe we should withhold your name and/or the details of your complaint:

8. Process from here

Once a valid complaint relating to an alleged breach of the Members' Code of Conduct has been received by the Monitoring Officer, it will be assessed and evaluated by the Monitoring Officer in accordance with the Council's Protocol: Arrangements for Investigating and Making Decisions in relation to allegation made under the Members' Code of Conduct.

The Monitoring Officer may seek clarification or further information from you.

The Monitoring Officer will decide whether the complaint:

- (i) should be dealt with by local resolution;
- (ii) is frivolous and/or vexatious;
- (iii) can be dealt with by adopting another approach that is considered more effective and/or efficient; or
- (iv) is appropriate to be referred for investigation.

You will be informed of the Monitoring Officer's decision in writing and any applicable next steps in the process.
