PENSIONS COMMITTEE

17 NOVEMBER 2008

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF FINANCE

EMPLOYER REPRESENTATION ON COMMITTEE

1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 1.1. This report is to inform Members of the result of the exercise carried out to seek nominations for a deputy to the non district council representative on the Pensions Committee.

2. BACKGROUND

- 2.1. Members considered a request for an increase to the representation of the non district council employers on the Pensions Committee at the meeting held on 29 September 2008.
- 2.2. The Committee rejected the proposal that an additional representative should be appointed but instead agreed that a deputy be appointed for the non district council employers representative to attend meetings when Jayne Brown is unable to do so (Minute 37 refers).
- 2.3. I wrote to the 111 non district council employers including educational institutions, voluntary organisations, private contractors undertaking best value contracts for local authorities, housing organisations and a number of other commercial organisations, to seek nominations for the role.
- 2.4. I have to report that no such nominations were received by the specified closing date of 27 October 2008 and therefore a ballot will not take place and no deputy will be appointed at this time.
