

HILLSBOROUGH DISASTER

On April 15th 1989 a disaster at Hillsborough Stadium in Sheffield led, ultimately, to the deaths of 96 innocent fans who had left home that morning to watch a football match.

Due to crowd control mis-management those fans, whose ages ranged from 10 to 67, had the life crushed out of them.

Contrary to the facts the S*n published a front page story with the banner headline 'The Truth' which contained blatant lies.

Here are a few of the lies:

"Drunken Liverpool fans viciously attacked rescue workers as they tried to revive victims and police officers, firemen and ambulance crews were punched, kicked and urinated upon!"

This was printed in a national British newspaper, The S*n!

For this reason we ask all retailers and vendors of newspapers to stop selling the S*n.

We applaud the group called 'The Total Eclipse of the S*n' for their endeavors to rid our city region of this newspaper.
